

Grade 6

Reproductive Systems

External Genitals

Internal Reproductive Organs

External Genitals

Internal Reproductive Organs

External Genitals

Circumcised Penis

Uncircumcised Penis

Menstrual Cycle

Note that this diagram shows a menstrual cycle of 28 days, which is an average. Cycles can vary between 24-38 days long.

Sperm Production

Fertilization

Implantation

Pregnancy

Fetal Development

2 Months

Fetal Development

6 Months

Fetal Development

9 Months

Fetal Development

Fetal Development

First Trimester

First
Month

Baby called an embryo.
Is about 6 mm long.

Second
Month

Arm and leg buds are starting to show. Is about 2.5 cm long.

Third
Month

Baby called a fetus.
Eyes, ears, nose and
mouth are formed.

2 Months

Fetal Development

Second Trimester

Fourth
Month

Fetus has fingernails
and toenails.
Can hear sounds.

Fifth
Month

Fetus will kick, twist and turn in uterus. Is about 25 cm long.

Sixth
Month

Fetus can hiccup, and open and close eyelids.
Weighs about 1 kg.

Fetal Development

Third Trimester

9 Months

Seventh
Month

Has made billions of brain cells. Movements can be seen by others.

Eighth
Month

Fetus is building layers of fat to stay warm after birth. About 46 cm long.

Ninth
Month

Skin is pinker and less wrinkled. Weighs about 3-4 kg.